

SOCIETY NOTES

Mrs. L. E. Morgan of Wooster, O., is the guest of her sister, Miss Saldee Stean, 1502 Broadway. Saturday afternoon Miss Stean entertained for Mrs. Morgan. Those present were Mrs. S. T. Simpson, Mrs. T. H. Hickman, Mrs. Roy Murry, Mrs. L. G. Rinkle, Mrs. L. A. Weaver, Miss Anne Douglas, Mrs. M. R. Arnold, Mrs. E. Thornton, Mrs. W. P. Dysart, Miss Winifred Dysart, Miss Alice Durrett, Miss Elizabeth Arnold, Mrs. L. H. Hannah and Mrs. J. B. Hanson of Cleveland, O.

Mrs. L. A. Weaver entertained informally yesterday afternoon for Mrs. L. E. Morgan. The guests were Mrs. M. R. Arnold, Miss Elizabeth Arnold, Mrs. L. G. Rinkle, Mrs. S. T. Simpson, Miss Saldee Stean and Mrs. Morgan. Thursday night Mrs. L. G. Rinkle will give a dinner party for Mrs. Morgan. The other guests will be Mrs. M. T. Arnold, Miss Elizabeth Arnold and Miss Saldee Stean.

Misses Margaret Norris and Edna Beasley, students in the University, spent the week-end at Hardin College, Mexico.

Mrs. E. A. Trowbridge entertained the members of the Social Study club at her home this afternoon.

The Sigma Chi fraternity will give a formal dance at the chapter house December 20.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Estill of Estill are guests at the home of C. B. Bowling.

Mrs. H. B. Kline returned last night to her home in Chicago, after a visit to Mrs. E. Sydney Stephens.

The Jefferson Club has announced a house dance for Friday evening, November 24.

The Pi Kappa Alpha fraternity will give a formal dinner dance at the chapter house Friday evening.

Miss Vivian Bresnahan, an instructor in English in the University, gave a tea yesterday afternoon for her mother, Mrs. Thomas Bresnahan, in her apartments at 713 Missouri avenue. Mrs. Bresnahan returned today to her home at Brookfield, after spending a week with her daughter.

Mrs. A. H. Shepard will give a tea tomorrow afternoon in honor of her daughter, Mrs. J. B. Hanson of Cleveland, Ohio, formerly Miss Olive Shepard of Columbia, who is visiting her. Assisting will be Mrs. Rosa Ingles and Miss Frances Bennett in the living room, Mrs. Marshall Gordon and Mrs. B. R. Shore in the library, Miss Mary Eliff and Evelyn Joycelyn in the sun parlor and Mrs. Louise Knudson and Mrs. Norton Shepard, with several young girls, in the dining room. The dining room will be decorated in yellow flowers and ribbons and the sun parlor in white and green.

Mrs. I. O. Hockaday has as her guest this week Mrs. W. H. Lumsden of Augusta, Ga. Mrs. Berry McAllister will give a small luncheon Friday for Mrs. Lumsden.

The Sigma Nu fraternity will give a dance Friday night.

Mrs. S. T. Blair of Chicago and Mrs. Theodore Hinroten of New York state, the guests of Mrs. R. B. Price and Mrs. W. H. Lumsden and Mrs. Robert Estill, will be guests of honor at a tea from 4 to 6 o'clock tomorrow afternoon given by Mrs. C. C. Bowling. The following will assist: Mrs. Alex Bradford, Mrs. Emmett Smith, Mrs. T. K. Catron, Mrs. Millard Lipscomb, Jr., Mrs. E. Sidney Stephens, Mrs. J. P. McBaine, Mrs. Berry McAllister, Mrs. J. L. Stephens, Mrs. Wilson Hudson, Mrs. Guy L. Noyes, Mrs. John Belcher, Mrs. J. C. Jones and Misses Ruth and Margaret Rollins and Florence Willis and Juliette Bowling. About seventy persons will be present. Carnations and chrysanthemums will be used as decorations.

Mrs. Katherine Noe entertained with a dinner at the Acacia house yesterday evening in honor of Dean and Mrs. E. J. McCaustland, Miss Eva Johnston, Miss Alberta Thornburg and Dr. W. W. Elwang.

The Acacia fraternity will entertain with a house dance Saturday night.

Mrs. J. P. McBaine will entertain at luncheon Saturday in honor of Mrs. W. H. Lumsden, who is the guest of Mrs. I. O. Hockaday.

Miss Viola Bradley, a former student of the University, and Glenn Davis were guests at dinner last night of Mrs. O. C. McCullough, Captain O. F. Fuller of Webster Groves is visiting his grandson, O. C. McCullough.

Mrs. C. C. Bowling will have a bridge party Thursday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Bob Estill.

Miss Juliette Bowling is giving a bridge party Friday afternoon for Mrs. Bob Estill her guest.

Mrs. William Beck and Miss Lillian Beck of Rising Sun, Ia., were guests of Miss Leila Beck for the week-end.

CITY AND CAMPUS

Mrs. Thelma and Mabel Thompson of Southern Kansas are visiting Mrs. J. D. Wynne and daughter, Willobill, 707 Gentry place.

Mrs. E. L. Chambliss of Kansas City will arrive Saturday to be the weekend guest of her son, Lawrence, a student in the University.

Miss Opal Davis, a student in the University, went to Mexico, Mo., today for a short visit.

Pi Lambda Theta, a senior women's organization in the School of Education, held an open meeting last night in the Elementary School. Howard C. Taylor discussed the school as a social center. The club is planning to hold these open meetings once a month.

Miss Hazel Story returned last night from her home in Springfield, Mo., where she was called last week on account of the illness of her brother, who died a few days after her arrival.

Several magazines have recently been added to the periodical shelf in the Missouri Union. Among these are the Smart Set, Motion Picture Magazine, Judge, Puck, Baseball Magazine and Country Life in America.

The Pepizetis Club, composed of senior girls in the Columbia High School, has collected enough money to subscribe for thirteen magazines for the school library.

The Columbia High School girls' basketball team will play the girls' team from Ashland Saturday.

Marcus Asquith, Sam Locke, Morris Keath, Leonard Coatsworth and Wentworth Selden walked to Providence Sunday afternoon, going by way of Rock Bridge and Rutland. The seventeen miles were covered in about four hours.

Mrs. T. B. Crump, 1109 East Broadway, is visiting at Pilot Grove.

The hats ordered by the junior agricultural students were expected to arrive yesterday, but only twenty-nine of them came. The hats are light gray and have broad, flat brims. Inside the crown is the inscription "Farmers 1918."

The International Polity Club held its regular fortnightly meeting last night in the Y. M. C. A. Building. The Rev. A. W. Taylor of the Missouri Bible College spoke on "The Social Reactions of War and Peace."

The Choral Society held its weekly rehearsal meeting last night in Prof. W. H. Pommer's studio in Academic Hall.

Edwin Jacobs of St. Louis, who has been visiting his sister-in-law, Mrs. Mary Jacobs, 107 South Sixth street, has gone to Centralia to visit relatives.

Miss Ethel Winner, a student in the School of Journalism, left this morning for her home in St. Louis, where she will spend several days. Miss Winner will have as her guest Miss Efl Lyons, who was graduated from the University last June and who is now teaching at De Soto.

Linden N. Ross, a student in the College of Agriculture, left last night for Maysville, where he has been sent by the dairy department to conduct a seven-day cow test.

Sherett Johnson, a freshman in the College of Arts and Science, returned to his home in Kansas City yesterday. He will be out of school the remainder of this semester.

The Y. M. C. A. board at a monthly meeting last night elected Harry E. Rasmussen to fill a vacancy on the board. Mr. Rasmussen was also elected recorder of the association.

The Young Men's Christian Association received a telegram this morning from Branch Rickey, manager of the St. Louis Browns, stating that he would be unable to speak to the University men on Monday night, but that he would be in Columbia at a future date.

Although Miss Miriam Gandon is ill, it is hoped that she will be able to start rehearsals with the Dramatic Club next week. Miss Gandon will play the leading part in the "College Widow" which is to be presented by the Quadrangle Club.

Miss Addie D. Root, G. H. Reavis and R. H. Emberson left today for St. Louis to attend the State Teachers Association. They will be there the remainder of the week.

Miss Carrie Pancoast has just returned from a trip to Jackson and Johnson counties, where she has been giving lectures in extension schools on home economics and judging township fairs.

John B. Smith has gone to Edina to look after some co-operative crop experiments.

H. O. Allison and E. A. Trowbridge, of the animal husbandry department, went to Mexico yesterday to attend the Emmons short horn sale.

J. P. Gibbs of Hartsburg went to Sturgeon today on business.

Mrs. M. A. Chapman of Golden, Ill., returned to her home today, after a visit to Mrs. C. J. Grosclaude.

Mrs. Everett Buckler went to Centralia this morning to spend the day.

The Y. W. C. A. will meet at 4:15 tomorrow afternoon. Mrs. Turner McBaine will address the meeting on "Girls' Fellowship Week."

R. E. Miller, J. B. Alford, I. E. Nuckols, Russell Knotts, W. G. Loeffel, J. H. Wright and Russell Wilson, under the supervision of Professor H. Hackedorf, will leave today for a trip through Illinois to visit pioneer stock farms. They will return Saturday.

William Hirth went to Higginsville today.

F. L. Limerick and daughter, Miss Mary, left for St. Louis this morning. Mr. Limerick will hold an institute for the Home Missionary Society, and his daughter will attend the State Teachers' Association. Miss Limerick teaches at the Strawn school.

W. J. Duvall went to Sturgeon today to visit his brother, Bass Duvall.

Mrs. T. C. Daniels went to Centralia this morning.

L. O. Thompson went to Centralia this morning on business.

E. E. Alexander went to Sturgeon on business this morning.

A. C. Claypool today went to Moberly where he will visit his daughter, Mrs. Oler Mathis.

George Chapple and son, Penn, returned to their home at Bowling Green today.

Mrs. G. L. Griffin and sons, Russell and Harold, left this morning for Ravenwood, where they will make their home. Mr. Griffin has been at Ravenwood for several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Head and son, William Thomas, went to Moberly this morning to visit at the home of Mrs. Head's mother, Mrs. D. C. Bowman.

F. D. Hubbell went to Moberly this morning.

T. J. Holloway went to Centralia this morning.

Mrs. Anna Castelman left this morning for Albuquerque, N. M., where she will spend the winter.

George Barkwell left this morning for Kirksville.

E. L. Daugherty went to Paris, Mo., today.

Prof. E. A. Trowbridge went to Sturgeon this morning to attend the sale of short horn cattle held by Littrell, Stewart & Hines and Keith Brothers.

For the convenience of several students who cannot take advantage of the Y. M. C. A. swimming pool the three evenings it is open during the week, arrangements have been made to keep the pool open from 4:30 until 6 o'clock Tuesday and Thursday afternoons.

Too Late to Classify.

Wanted: A student who has had experience in pressing. Tiger Cleaners, 14 N. 9th St. Phone 514. T. 65.

CITY AND CAMPUS

J. B. Bollman, representing the Home of the Friendless in Kansas City, made a talk at chapel Tuesday. His subject was "Needed Reforms at the State Penitentiary in Missouri."

Miss Marguerite Chapman and Miss Dorothy Wiggins, former students, were recent visitors at the college.

Miss Louise Dopheide went to her home in Palmyra, Ill., Sunday. Her serious surgical operation.

Mother has entered a hospital for a

Miss Ada Julia Lingle was leader at the Sunday vesper service. The subject was "Training for Efficient Leadership." Others who contributed to the discussion were: Allene Lyle, Maude Minor, and Lorene Hough.

A large number of the students in the dormitory and several of the faculty occupied the section reserved for Christian for the St. Louis Symphony Orchestra concert.

Senior tables have been arranged in the dining room for the members of the college class. This plan facilitates class conferences and promotes class spirit.

Invitations have been issued by the "new" students in honor of the "old" girls to a party in the gym next Saturday night. The guest list is limited to the faculty and students with a few out-of-town guests.

Students in the school of expression gave an after-dinner recital Tuesday night in the college auditorium. The recital was in the nature of a tribute to James Whitcomb Riley. The following took part in the program: Misses Anne Hickman, Louise Johnson, Harriet Cravens, Marie Pettijohn, Robbie Standifer, Allene Lyle.

For Evening Wear---

All dress and semi-dress occasions demand something distinctive and suitable in footwear.

This footwear is part of our stock. We'll not try to describe it to you---rather, come in and

Let Us Show Them To You

Guitars' SHOES

"Broadway's White Front Shoe Shop"

NATURE never starts anything she can't finish. Tobacco ain't any exception.

VELVET is naturally aged for two years. No artificial methods.

Velvet Joe

"The Best of Everything"

Oysters have not added anything to high cost of living, they were never better, we get ours direct from Baltimore

Extra Selects, Pint 30c
Standards, Pint 25c

Family Pork Sausage, pure pork loose or small links, per pound - 20c

Sirloin Steaks, cut from quality native beef always juicy and tender, per pound - - - - 28c

Libby's Mince Meat made from choice select fruit and spices. A trial will convince you how foolish it is to make it yourself. Per pound - - 17 1/2

Libby's Sweet Relish. A sweet chopped pickle, appetizing and delicious. Quart - - - - 25c

909 Broadway

Richards MARKET

Established 1893

909 Broadway

Newman Hardware Co.
904 BROADWAY COLUMBIA MO.
PHONE 234

Thanksgiving Suggestions--

Newman Hardware Co.
904 BROADWAY COLUMBIA MO.
PHONE 234

Necessary Articles for the Table and Kitchen.

CARVERS
Keen Cutter and Robeson High-Grade Carving Set--they give satisfaction and are guaranteed.

CASSEROLES
Large size Nickel frame Guernsey Insets. Special Price $1.98

PYREX WARE
We are showing a complete line of Pyrex Glass Cooking Ware. It is very attractive and durable.

A-B GAS RANGES
Sanitary, Convenient, Economical. All sizes and all patterns.

COMMUNITY SILVER

Knives and Forks, Sugar Shells, Oyster Forks, Berry Spoons, Pie Servers, Gravy Ladles, Salad Forks, Tomato Servers, etc.

FOOD CHOPPERS
Large size family food choppers at a special price of 98c

ALUMINUM BARGAIN
Extra Heavy Pure Aluminum Preserving Kettle. 8 qt., price 98c

COFFEE PERCOLATORS
We have Coffee Percolators for stove, alcohol and electricity. Also Tea Ball Tea Pots.

ENAMELED
TURKEY
ROASTERS

Newman Hardware Co.
904 BROADWAY COLUMBIA MO.
PHONE 234

ALUMINUM
TURKEY
ROASTERS